

Pierre M. Horna LL.M.

Master of Laws in International Business Law from Leiden University, The Netherlands (September, 2003) with thesis on the developmental dimension of expanding WTO covered agreements into Competition Policy. While in UNCTAD since 2003, he has participated at a number of scholarships such as the Academy of European Law (ERA - June, 2008); University of St. Gallen and Asia Research Centre Study Programme in Context and Management in Southeast Asia. Singapore - Indonesia (August, 2006). Before UNCTAD, he participated at the University of Buckingham, UK (March, 2002), the World Trade Institute, Bern, Switzerland (July, 2003), the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Amsterdam, The Netherlands International Conference on Arbitration and Mediation (May, 2003), among others.

Pierre is a qualified lawyer and Bachelor of Laws graduated by the University of Lima, Peru. The bachelor thesis was published as a text book in September 2002 by the Catholic University of Peru.